THE ART OF HIFI

SOUND IS SACRED

sound stretches time,
drenches silence,
teaching space to feel.

Designed to inhabit space and transform its atmosphere.

More than speakers, each OBEN system is a sculptural presence: a museum-grade instrument where form and frequency converge.

Immersive, dimensional, and profoundly human.

OBEN transcends the boundaries of traditional high-fidelity speaker systems, offering a sound quality that feels startlingly alive. Many describe their first encounter as an awakening: an intimacy with music they hadn't felt before, like hearing their favorite song for the first time.

Handcrafted in Los Angeles by two artists, each piece is realized as a limited edition or singular commission.

Sculptural objects of raw power and quiet magnetism.

Not just heard, but experienced.

Not just seen, but felt.

Not just owned, but remembered.

THE ART OF OBEN

For collectors, creators, and those who listen with intention, OBEN realizes sculptural speakers conceived as works of art.

Each OBEN work is catalogued with a unique serial number to ensure authenticity and provenance.

We offer serialized Limited Collections, no two alike yet all part of a defined series, and fully commissioned one-of-one works created in direct collaboration with a Patron.

This is not plug-and-play.

THIS IS PRECISION, PRESENCE, AND PERMANENCE.

THE MOMENT YOU HEAR THEM, THE DIFFERENCE IS UNDENIABLE

Where conventional audio ends with performance, OBEN begins with presence, a sound quality that surpasses even the most revered high-fidelity systems, alive in the room and felt as much as heard.

Many listeners are visibly moved the first time they hear OBEN, describing an experience that feels both intimate and transcendent.

TRUE SOUND IS FELT, NOT HEARD

Clarity & Coherence – Every note is delivered from a single source, without crossovers or competing equipment.

Accuracy & Realism – Free from electronic filtering, tonality remains pure and lifelike.

Imaging & Soundstage – All frequencies radiate from one point, creating a holographic, dimensional field.

Transparency & Efficiency – Fewer components mean less loss and a truer connection to the artist's intent.

LIMITED EDITIONS

Small collections—handcrafted, numbered, and finite. Once an edition closes, it never returns. Every OBEN piece carries a unique serial number, certifying authenticity and its place within the lineage of our work.

KORUS

Korus is a sculpted pair of acoustic monoliths, shaped with precise, flowing contours that read as both architectural structure and carved abstraction. The surface reveals a patterning that feels engineered yet elemental, as if the grain has been drafted rather than grown. Deep cutouts and elongated voids function as intentional spatial gestures, guiding resonance through the body like sound moving through a chamber. Korus is bold yet disciplined, a study in form, mass, and negative space that transforms architectural presence into sound made tangible.

MANE

Mane is a sculptural pair of acoustic totems – cloaked in lush, tactile fibers that blur the line between the natural and the surreal. Each form rests on alloy-silver legs crowned with natural gemstone spheres, grounding its presence in strength and ritual. Chrome-ringed drivers radiate with clarity and force, while the fur-like surface softens its scale. Mane is wild yet refined – primal energy harnessed into elegance, a statement pair that transforms untamed texture into sound embodied.

ARQOS

The ARQOS Series speaks in the language of earth and form. Its hand-shaped façade recalls primordial architecture—arches, portals, and foundations carved in stone—reimagined as vessels for sound. Each surface bears the gesture of its making, where gravity, texture, and resonance converge.

ARQOS balances weight and stillness with precision and clarity. It carries the gravity of sculpture yet hums with life, grounding acoustic mastery in raw material and human intent. ARQOS embodies presence: grounded yet transcendent, primitive yet precise.

OBEN — ARQOS Series

Hand-sculpted forms with a clay-like finish, with OBEN signature drivers.

CALLISTO

The Callisto Series draws its name from the celestial, its carved façade echoing the cratered terrain of distant moons while grounding itself in architectural rhythm. Its domed geometry recalls Brutalist monuments softened into an organic, tactile pattern – a balance of cosmic vastness and human craft.

Callisto evokes presence: ancient yet futuristic, monumental yet intimate. More than a speaker, Callisto is an atmosphere made tangible.

It is both monumental and intimate – a statement piece that transforms space into sound.

OBEN BEGINNINGS

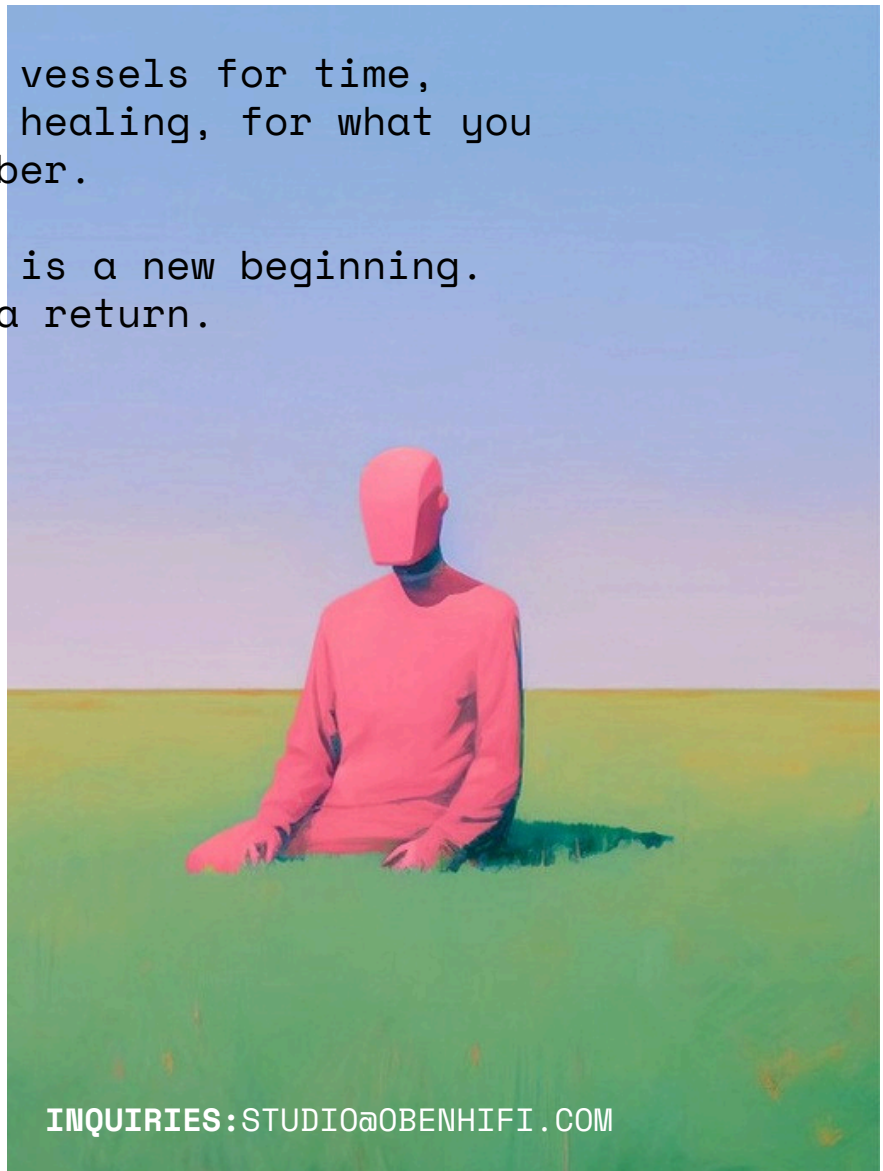

OBEN was born in Los Angeles, an offering from two design-obsessed minds who believe sound is sacred and art is alive.

Most speakers are engineered. OBEN was conjured by artists who know that beauty belongs in every dimension. These art objects are born from working artists who bring deep creative integrity to both sound and form. With practices that span sculptural design, immersive environments, and high-fidelity sound, their work carries a rare fluency across both sonic and physical space. One half of the duo is signed to Roc Nation, bringing an intimate understanding of music at the highest level. Together, they shape every detail, every curve, every frequency by hand and by vision. The result is an object that dissolves the line between sound and sculpture – an experience as technical as it is emotional, as spatial as it is spiritual. OBEN is the rare place where both creators give every part of themselves – as artists and designers – to shape something wholly alive.

born from our hands, belonging to no one—

these forms are vessels for time,
for beauty, for healing, for what you choose to remember.

every vibration is a new beginning.
every silence, a return.
